Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

October 15, 2017

Our Mission:

- To live among God's faithful people;
- To hear God's Word through the Spirit and share in the Lord's Supper;
- To proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed;
- To serve all people, following the example of our Lord Jesus;
- To strive for justice and peace in all the earth. ✦

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH during this season of Pentecost when we celebrate the Holy Spirit as the one who calls and gathers us together as God's people in Jesus Christ and inspires us to pray for one another to be strong in our faith and steadfast in our love for God and for one another.

WE WELCOME EVERYONE TO THE LORD'S TABLE to receive God's gift of forgiveness and the powerful freedom of a new life in Christ.

Please come down the center aisle, proceed to the communion rail, and kneel or stand at the first open space. Hold out your hand to receive the bread. Gluten-free wafers are available. Please indicate your desire for a wafer at the time you are offered the bread. You may drink either from an individual glass, which will be served first, or from the chalice. The individual glasses in the center of the tray contain grape juice (golden color). The outside glasses contain red wine. An acolyte will pass by to pick up your individual glass. In the spirit of continuous communion, please return to your seat via the side aisles after you have drunk from the glass or chalice. After everyone has been served at the communion rail, the ministers will serve anyone in the pew that is unable to come forward. Please indicate your desire in this regard to the pastor. Parents who desire that their children not receive communion may bring them forward for a blessing.

PLEASE INDICATE YOUR ATTENDANCE at worship today and your participation at Holy Communion by completing the enclosed Worship Registration form and placing it in the offering plate. Please join us for fellowship and refreshments in the lounge after the service.

THERE ARE CHILDREN'S BAG with bulletins and books available in the lounge and the narthex. They are hanging on the wall.

CHILD CARE is available in the Nursery for children of any age. Ask the usher for directions.

CHANGING STATIONS are in both the Women's and Men's restrooms, across the hall from the nursery.

OUR PRAYERS are with the family and friends Robert Maschhoff, father of Brian & Kristi, upon his death on October 12; for our homebound, and for those in need of healing in body or spirit.

TEXTS FOR NEXT SUNDAY: Isaiah 45:1-7; 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10; Matthew 22:15-22.

Service of Confession & Absolution

Service of Confession & Absolution

Confession

P: We hear today that God gives life to all things—a life that is grounded in righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness. Life also is given by God in the form of forgiveness for all of the times that we do not keep God’s commandments without spot and blame. Trusting in this gift of forgiveness, we confess our sins, and take hold of the eternal life that God promises to all who confess their sins to God.

(Time for silent confession)

P: Immortal and eternal God,

All: We confess to you that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our entire being. We have not loved our neighbors as we have been loved by you. So much of what we hear in your Word today indicts us because we do give in to our temptations and are trapped by our many senseless and harmful desires. We are plagued by our fear, greed, anxiety, envy, and discontentment which leads us to hoard our wealth and to lord ourselves over others. We may not spend our nights plotting how to increase our wealth, but we do have to deal with the insecurity of not knowing how much is enough for us to be able to live comfortably for all of our days. Forgive us for our self-indulgence, and set us free from our bondage to sin.

Absolution

P: As God desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth, God offers to you the forgiveness of all of your sins and sets you free to walk in the newness of life—a life that is strong in faith and rich in good deeds for the health and wholeness of the entire community. Take hold of this life and live!

C: Amen.

First Lesson

Isaiah 25:1-9

O God, you are my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure. For you have made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin; the palace of aliens is a city no more, it will never be rebuilt. Therefore strong peoples will glorify you; cities of ruthless nations will fear you. For you have been a refuge to the poor, a refuge to the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat. When the blast of the ruthless was like a winter rainstorm, the noise of aliens like heat in a dry place, you subdued the heat with the shade of clouds; the song of the ruthless was stilled. On this mountain God will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And God will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; God will swallow up death forever. Then God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of all God's people God will take away from all the earth. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God for whom we have waited, so that God might save us. This is our God for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in God's salvation.

L: Holy Wisdom. Holy Word.

C: Thanks be to God.

Second Lesson

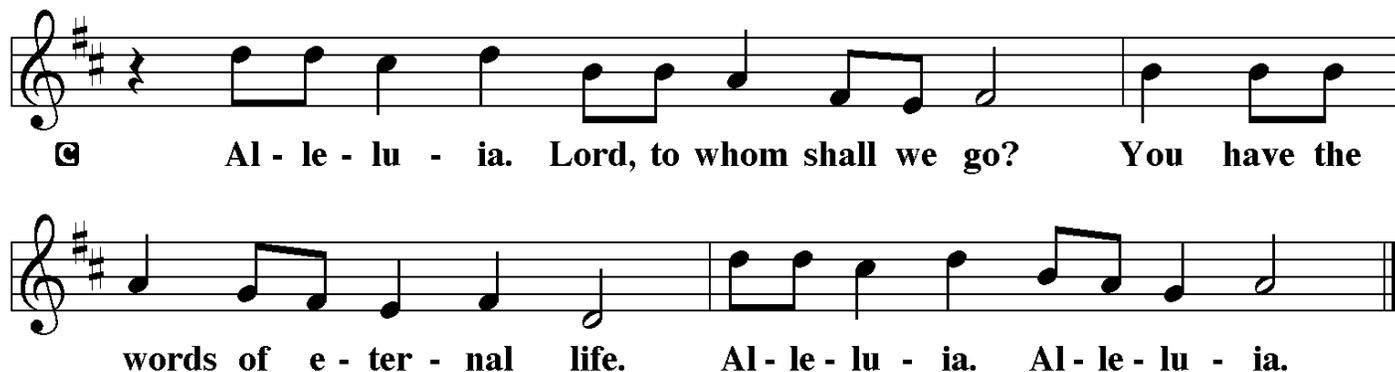

Philippians 4:1-9

My brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in Christ in this way, my beloved. I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in Christ Jesus. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. Christ is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

L: Holy Wisdom. Holy Word.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Matthew 22:1-14

Once more Jesus spoke to the disciples in parables, saying: "The realm of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, 'Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.' But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.' Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?' And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' For many are called, but few are chosen."

Hymn of the Day

“We Are All One in Mission”

Blue Hymnal #655

Affirmation of Faith

We believe in the God of love, who is the loving Creator of heaven and earth, and the source of all love among humankind.

We believe in Jesus Christ, the beloved child of God who was filled with God’s Spirit, Who by the power of this Spirit loved others as God is love; Who demonstrated his love for all by laying down his life for the salvation of the world;

Who was raised by God to dispel all fear of death;

Who breathed his Spirit on his disciples and gave them the power to love; and

Who will come again to reveal to all people the eternal love of God.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the inspiration and motivation for all people to love, Who enables us to know the love of God and abide in God’s love;

Who empowers us to love one another with God’s love;

Who forgives our sins as we forgive one another; and

Who brings God’s love to completion by casting out all fear among us.

We have known and believe this love of God so that we may be the light of God’s love in the world.

Amen.

Children’s Message

The Lord’s my Shepherd, I’ll not want,
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green, He leadeth me
The quiet water by.

My soul He doth restore gain
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of Blessedness,
E’en for His own Name’s sake.

Yes, though I pass through shadowed vale,
Yet will I fear no ill,
For thou art with me,
And Thy Rod and Staff me comfort still.
My table Thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head with oil Thou dost anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my days
Will surely follow me;
And in my Maker’s heart always
My dwelling place shall be
And in my heart for evermore
Thy dwelling place shall be.

Offertory Hymn

Let the vine - yards be fruit - ful, Lord, and fill to the brim our cup of bless - ing. Gath - er a har - vest from the seeds that were sown, that we may be fed with the bread of life.
Gath - er the hopes and the dreams of all; u - nite them with the prayers we of - fer now. Grace our ta - ble with your pres - ence, and give us a fore - taste of the feast to come.

Offertory Prayer

A: Let us pray together:

C: God of all good gifts, we give you thanks for the way that you have provided for us in this life. In response, we offer to you these fruits of our labor for the good of our neighbors, the wellness of our community, and the wholeness of all creation. Bless this bread and fruit of the vine so that all who receive this holy meal may be nourished and motivated to follow in the way of Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

P: May God be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to our gracious God.

C: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

P: It is indeed right and salutary . . . and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might:

Heav- en and earth are full of your glo- ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san - na.

Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Eucharistic Prayer

P: Creator God, you have created a world in which all might be satisfied by your abundant blessings. You dined with Sarah and Abraham, promising them life. You fed your people Israel with manna from heaven. You sent prophets to remind your people that they should be especially mindful of the widows and orphans in their community. In the fullness of time, you sent Jesus to proclaim good news to those who live in poverty, to dine with outcasts and sinners, to live simply and sustainably, to call those who are wealthy to a new way of life, and to cancel the debts of those who are enslaved by such bondage.

To model this way of justice and peace, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat. This is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

In the same manner, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people, for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering how Jesus sacrificed his life in order that we may live more fully in his grace, we rejoice in his resurrection and accept the new life that we all have received in the way that we have love for one another. As we live into this future, we await the day when all the peoples of the earth will come together with hearts yearning for justice and peace.

Send now your Spirit so that all who partake of this holy meal and are set free from our sins may be filled with the faith and courage to give of our lives and our resources for the common good of all people as we follow in the way of Jesus, through whom all glory and honor are yours, both now and forever.

C: Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

WELCOME!

Welcome to University Lutheran Church! We welcome you into the life and ministry of this congregation, and pray that as you worship with us and become familiar with our people and our many activities, you will discover a place to belong and a way to participate in this corporate ministry of Jesus Christ.

ULC is in a period of transition. In September 2016, Pastor Tim Wolbrecht was installed as our interim pastor. Our Transition Team then met for six months and created our Mission Site Profile, a necessary step before forming a Call Committee. The Call Committee was installed during our service on April 9, and they are in the process of bringing a new pastor to ULC.

ULC is also in a period of celebration. We are enjoying special events as we give thanks for our first 100 years and look toward an exciting future.

ULC is a metropolitan congregation, committed to being a vital ministry in the University District and the world. We offer a variety of liturgies for worship in order to make a joyful noise unto God every Sunday.

As a Reconciling in Christ Congregation, we affirm the dignity and worth of people of all races, ethnic backgrounds, sexual orientations, gender identity, social status, age, physical capability and economic condition. As a Greening Congregation, we strive to be faithful stewards of God's creation. As an Advocating Congregation we make our voices known to our governing authorities on behalf of those who are crying out for justice and peace.

Please join us after worship in the lounge for fellowship, coffee & goodies!
