Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

November 6, 2016

Our Mission:

- To live among God's faithful people;
- To hear God's Word through the Spirit and share in the Lord's Supper;
- To proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed;
- To serve all people, following the example of our Lord Jesus;
- To strive for justice and peace in all the earth. ✦

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

on this All Saints' Sunday. On this day, we remember our loved ones who have preceded us in death and who live now in the eternal embrace of our gracious God. We especially remember members of this congregation, Claude Elerding, Dave Hamro, Lois Johnson, & Candace Pidcock, who died since last All Saints' day. A candle will be lit for each in their honor at the beginning of the worship service.

WE WELCOME EVERYONE TO THE LORD'S TABLE to receive God's gift of forgiveness and the powerful freedom of a new life in Christ. Please come down the center aisle, proceed to the communion rail, and kneel or stand at the first open space. Hold out your hand to receive the bread. Gluten-free wafers are available. Please indicate your desire at the time you are offered the bread. You may drink either from an individual glass, which will be served first, or from the chalice. The individual glasses in the center of the tray contain grape juice (golden color). The outside glasses contain red wine. An acolyte will pass by to pick up your individual glass. In the spirit of continuous communion, please return to your seat via the side aisles after you have drunk from the glass or chalice. After everyone has been served at the communion rail, the ministers will serve anyone in the pew that is unable to come forward. Please indicate your desire in this regard to the pastor. Parents who desire that their children not receive communion may bring them forward for a blessing.

DURING THE COURSE OF THIS 100TH ANNIVERSARY YEAR, Music Director, Brian Higham will be selecting anthems from deep within the choir files. The choir will be presenting a number of pieces from many years past, which will give a sense of the time period that they were written and give a deeper understanding of what church members of previous eras heard within the walls of ULC.

PLEASE INDICATE YOUR ATTENDANCE at worship today and your participation in Holy Communion by completing the enclosed Worship Registration form and placing it in the offering plate. Please join us for fellowship and refreshments in the lounge after the service.

THERE ARE CHILDREN'S BAG with bulletins and books available in the lounge and the narthex. They are hanging on the wall.

CHILD CARE is available in the Nursery for children of any age. Ask the usher for directions.

FLOWERS TODAY are provided by the Altar Guild in honor of All Saints' Sunday.

OUR PRAYERS are for our homebound, and for all those in need of healing in body or spirit.

TEXTS FOR NEXT SUNDAY: Malachi 4:1-2a; 2 Thessalonians 3:6-13; Luke 21:5-19.

First Lesson

Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: "As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever—forever and ever."

L: Holy Wisdom. Holy Word.

C: Thanks be to God.

Second Lesson

Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of God's glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, God of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know God, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which God has called you, what are the riches of God's glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of God's power for us who believe, according to the working of God's great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he was raised from the dead and seated at God's right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And God has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of God who fills all in all.

L: Holy Wisdom. Holy Word.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the twelfth chapter.

Glo - ry to you, O Lord.

Gospel

Luke 6:20-31

Then Jesus looked up at his disciples and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Humanity. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

P: The Gospel of the risen Christ.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Affirmation of Faith

We believe in the God of love, who is the loving Creator of heaven and earth, and the source of all love among humankind.

We believe in Jesus Christ, the beloved child of God who was filled with God’s Spirit, Who by the power of this Spirit loved others as God is love; Who demonstrated his love for all by laying down his life for the salvation of the world;

Who was raised by God to dispel all fear of death;

Who breathed his Spirit on his disciples and gave them the power to love; and Who will come again to reveal to all people the eternal love of God.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the inspiration and motivation for all people to love, Who enables us to know the love of God and abide in God’s love; Who empowers us to love one another with God’s love; Who forgives our sins as we forgive one another; and Who brings God’s love to completion by casting out all fear among us.

We have known and believe this love of God so that we may be the light of God’s love in the world.

Amen.

“Come, Holy Ghost, Draw Near Us”

Leo Sowerby

Come, Holy Ghost, draw near us,
Most gentle, most benign;
Console, exhort and cheer us,
Thou Comforter divine:
Come, hallow thou our gladness,
Come, ready help in sadness,
True friend in time of need.

Come, Paraclete, most holy,
Turn sinner into Saint;
Hope of the poor and lowly,
Revive the dead, the faint:

Come, Star, true course declaring
To mariners seafaring;
Safe port to sailors wrecked.

Sole boast of all poor mortals
That draw of life the breath,
Come, when we near the portals,
The darksome gates of death;
Come, Lord, alone supplying
Salvation for the dying;
Come, Holy Spirit, Come!

Offertory Hymn

Let the vine - yards be fruit - ful, Lord, and fill to the brim our cup of bless - ing. Gath - er a har - vest from the seeds that were sown, that we may be fed with the bread of life.
Gath - er the hopes and the dreams of all; u - nite them with the prayers we of - fer now. Grace our ta - ble with your pres - ence, and give us a fore - taste of the feast to come.

Offertory Prayer

A: Let us pray together:

C: God of all creation, through your commandments you have taught us how to love one another by the way that we share of our resources and serve those who are in need. Knowing that you have provided us with what we need to be sustained in this life, we offer to you these fruits of our labor for the proclamation of your good news, for the good of our neighbors, and for the common good of all creation. Bless this bread and fruit of the vine that we may be given the faith and courage to strive for justice and peace throughout the Earth. We pray in Jesus' holy name. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

P: May God be with you,

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to our gracious God.

C: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

P: It is indeed right and salutary . . . and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might:

Heav- en and earth are full of your glo- ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san - na.

Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Eucharistic Prayer

P: Holy God, endless is your mercy and eternal your reign. You have filled all creation with light and life. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Through Abraham and Sarah you promised to bless all nations. You rescued Israel, your chosen people. Through the prophets, you renewed your promise. At the end of this age, you sent Jesus, your beloved Child, who in words and deeds proclaimed your reign on Earth and was obedient to your will, even to giving his life.

In the night in which he was betrayed, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat. This is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

In the same manner, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people, for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim Jesus' death until he comes again.

C: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

P: Therefore, gracious God, with this bread and cup, we remember the life that Jesus offered for us. Believing in his resurrection, we await his coming in power to share with us the great and promised feast.

C: Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

P: Send now, we pray, your Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Jesus and his resurrection, that we who receive this bread and fruit of the vine may live to the praise of your glory and receive our inheritance with all your saints in light.

C: Amen. Come, Holy Spirit

Join our prayers with those of your saints of every time and every place, and unite them with the ceaseless petitions of our great High Priest, Jesus Christ, through whom all glory and honor are yours, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.
