We Choose Love! ✦

(Wording taken from ULC 2017 Ministry Site Profile)

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH during this Pentecost season as we remain open and receptive to how the Holy Spirit is moving in our lives to guide us in the way of truth, to give us the courage to live according to God's will, and to grant us the peace of knowing that we always are in the loving presence of a good and gracious God.

OUR SOLOIST TODAY IS JESSE BARNES. Jesse is an accomplished young man of nine years. A member of the Northwest Boychoir since January 2015, Jesse is currently singing in the Advanced training choir. Jesse debuted as a soloist in December 2018 with the Sammamish symphony, and sang in two concerts with the Seattle Symphony this past holiday season. He is also a violinist and budding composer, and has a wide variety of non-musical interests including geology and origami.

WE WELCOME EVERYONE TO THE LORD'S TABLE to receive God's gift of forgiveness and the powerful freedom of a new life in Christ. Please come down the center aisle, proceed to the communion rail, and kneel or stand at the first open space. Hold out your hand to receive the bread. Gluten-free wafers are available. Please indicate your desire for a wafer at the time you are offered the bread. You may drink either from an individual glass, which will be served first, or from the chalice. The individual glasses in the center of the tray contain grape juice (golden color). The outside glasses contain red wine. An acolyte will pass by to pick up your individual glass. In the spirit of continuous communion, please return to your seat via the side aisles after you have drunk from the glass or chalice. After everyone has been served at the communion rail, the ministers will serve anyone in the pew that is unable to come forward. Please indicate your desire in this regard to the pastor. Parents who desire that their children not receive communion may bring them forward for a blessing.

PLEASE INDICATE YOUR ATTENDANCE at worship today and your participation at Holy Communion by completing the enclosed Worship Registration form and placing it in the offering plate. Please join us for fellowship and refreshments in the lounge after the service.

THERE ARE BABY CHANGING TABLES available in both the men's & women's restrooms (across from the church office). There is also one in the Narthex.

THERE IS A CHILDREN'S AREA in the back of the sanctuary with quiet activities for young children. An adult must also be present when a child is there.

CHILD CARE is available in the Nursery for children of any age. Ask the usher for directions.

Forgive us, that we may live in the freedom of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie

Leaders sing the verses, Congregation sing the Refrain

Refrain S 184

Ky-ri-e e-lei-son, on our world and on our way.

Ky-ri-e e-lei-son, ev-'ry day.

For peace in the world, for the health of the church, for the unity of all;
For this holy house, for all who worship and praise,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. Refrain

That we may live out your impassioned response to the hungry and the poor;
That we may live out truth and justice and grace,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. Refrain

For peace in our hearts, for peace in our homes, for friends and family;
For life and for love, for our work and our play,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. Refrain

For your Spirit to guide; that you center our lives in the water and the Word;
That you nourish our souls with your body and blood,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. Refrain

Prayer of the Day

A: Let us pray together:

C: O Lord God, your mercy delights us, and the world longs for your loving care. Hear the cries of everyone in need, and turn our hearts to love our neighbors with the love of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

(Please be seated)

First Lesson

Deuteronomy 30:9-14

Moses calls the people who are about to enter the promised land to renew the covenant God made with their ancestors. Through this covenant God gives life and asks for obedience. God's commandment is neither burdensome nor too far off, but dwells in the people's own hearts.

The Lord your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the LORD will again take delight in prospering you, just as God delighted in prospering your ancestors, when you obey the LORD your God by observing God's commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. It is not in heaven, that you should say, "Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?" Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, "Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?" No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

L: The word of God.

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalm Hymn

"Lord, Speak to Us That We May Speak"

#676

Second Lesson

Colossians 1:1-14

The letter to the Colossians was written to warn its readers of various false teachings. The first part of the letter is an expression of thanks for the faith, hope, and love that mark this community, including a prayer for strength and courage from Paul.

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
To the saints and faithful brothers, sisters, and siblings in Christ in Colossae:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God’s will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to God who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. God has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of the beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

L: The word of God.

C: Thanks be to God.

(Please rise in body or spirit)

Gospel Acclamation

S 188

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia.
 Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.
 Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Gospel

Luke 10:25-27

Jesus is challenged to explain what is involved in obeying the greatest commandment. Jesus tells a parable rich in surprises: those expected to show pity display hard hearts while the lowly give and receive unexpected and lavish mercy.

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he said, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?” He said to him, “What is written in the law? What do you read there?” He answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.” And he said to him, “You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.”

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.’ Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?” He said, “The one who showed him mercy.” Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

Offertory Prayer

A: Blessed are you, O God, for the greening earth given for all, for the talents we are given to share, and for this bread and wine. Transform us to be the body of Christ, that feasting on this food and drink, our lives may reflect your generosity; through Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

P: The Lord be with you

C: And also with you

P: Lift up your hearts

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

C: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

P: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, O merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ. Fulfilling the promise of the resurrection, you pour out the fire of your Spirit, uniting in one body people of every nation and tongue. At this, the whole earth exults in boundless joy. And so with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy

S 190

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry, full of your glo-ry. Ho-san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Eucharistic Prayer

P: O God most mighty, O God most merciful, O God our rock and our salvation, hear us as we praise, call us to your table, grant us your life.

When the earth was a formless void, you formed order and beauty. When Abraham and Sarah were barren, you sent them a child; When the Israelites were enslaved, you led them to freedom. Ruth faced starvation, David fought Goliath, and the psalmists cried out for healing, and full of compassion, you granted the people your life.

You entered our sorrows in Jesus our brother. He was born among the poor, he lived under oppression, he wept over the city. With infinite love, he granted the people your life.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering his death, we cry out Amen. C: Amen.

Celebrating his resurrection, we shout Amen. C: Amen.

Trusting his presence in every time and place, we plead Amen. C: Amen.

O God, you are Breath: send your Spirit on this meal.

O God, you are Bread: feed us with yourself.

O God, you are wine: warm our hearts and make us one.

O God, you are Fire: transform us with hope.

O God most majestic, O God most motherly,

O God our strength and our song, you show us a vision of a tree of life with fruits for all and leaves that heal the nations. Grant us such life, the life of the Father to the Son, the life of the Spirit of our risen Savior, life in you, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

THE SPECIAL OFFERING FOR JULY IS UNIVERSITY DISTRICT FOOD BANK.

Last year UDFB had over 55,000 customer visits and distributed 2.3 million pounds of food. Approximately 16% of their customers are infants and children, 56% are adults, and 28% are senior citizens. Fifteen percent of their customers are homeless and UDFB tries to provide them with ready-to-eat foods when they visit the food bank. If you would like to contribute to UDFB, you may do so by using a special offering envelope in the pew, making your check out to ULC, earmarking it for UDFB, and putting your gift in the offering plate, or bringing it to the church office. Thank you for your generous offering.

THE 3RD ANNUAL GARDEL IN THE GARDEN--a celebration of Latin music organized by member Rich Hinrichsen--will take place TODAY at 4:00 p.m., at the home of Sue Tong, 4837 NE 85TH St. The concert will feature three singers (one from Puerto Rico), a guitarist, a pianist, and a violinist (from Argentina) performing music from Argentina, Portugal, Mexico, and Puerto Rico. The concert will be held in Sue Tong's extraordinary garden. Come listen to this beautiful exotic music seldom heard in Seattle! $10 donation is requested.

LET'S GET TOGETHER IN A CIG! (Common Interest Group) In April and May the Membership Committee collected suggestions of things folks in the congregation would enjoy doing with others. Here's the list of activities to date: Pinochle, Book Club, Movies, Knitting, Theater, Day of Community Service, Board Games/Cards, Biking, Camping, Hiking, Birding, Cooking/Meal Prepping. Some of these sound like Summer activities ... The next step by the committee will be sharing names and contact info among those who shared interest in these topics. Then it's up to those persons to communicate with each other and create opportunities. Share your plans by way of the bulletin (send an email to Mari) in case additional people would like to join your CIG. If you didn't have a chance to sign a list, or you have another activity you'd like to share, please sign up on the Worship Registration form and we'll help get the communication started. We're eager to see what happens!

WE ARE LOOKING for a few people to serve as Connectors with members of our congregation unable to make it to worship on a regular basis. Each relationship will have its own rhythms: you may make a phone call to your person once a week or once a month. Perhaps your person will want regular in-person visits or email contact. If you are willing to participate in connecting our community, regardless of their ability to attend services at ULC, please sign up on the Worship Registration form or contact the Membership Committee (Katie Saltanovitz, Janice Gockel, Samantha De Abreu, Pastor Sue) to get paired with a homebound or ailing partner.

EVERYONE IS INVITED to attend the "Farewell Flamingos! My Return to Chickens" event for John Wott. It is Thursday, July 25, 4:30 to 7:00 p.m. at the Center for Urban Horticulture (3501 NE 41st St). Join friends and family at this open house to say farewell before John relocates to the Midwest. There will be festive food, libations, and of course, dessert. Brief remarks will be made at 5:30 p.m. Please RSVP to 206-351-8226 or email to John@Wott.us.

OUR CHURCH ADMINISTRATOR, MARI, will be on vacation July 22-26. Pastor Sue would like someone here to answer phones and “direct traffic” while Mari is gone. The office will be closed on Thursday & Friday, July 25 & 26. We have someone for Monday, July 22 & Wednesday, July 24. We still need someone here Tuesday, July 23, 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. This person would need to unlock the parking lot door at 9:00 a.m. It is not expected one person to do all the days. If you could help out on one of these days, please let Mari know. If you can help for only two hours in a day, let her know that as well. If we have enough people volunteer, we should be able to cover the time.

It is very much appreciated.

THE ULC PICNIC & WORSHIP WILL BE on Sunday, August 4, at Carkeek Park (Broadview neighborhood, north of Ballard/Crown Hill). Coffee and fellowship will be at Shelter #2, starting at 9:30. We have the shelter reserved until 2:00 p.m., so plan to stay after lunch for more socializing and games if you like. Feel free to bring along your favorite lawn games or card games to share. The Membership Committee will provide beverages, and for other items (including main dishes and sides) we encourage you to bring your favorite picnic/ potluck item (the grill masters will get a break this year). We encourage everyone to bring their own lawn chairs or picnic blankets. Also bring reusable cups, plates, and utensils, and we will have extras on hand if you forget. Please let us know if you would like to assist in accompanying music, leading games, or lending us a large insulated beverage dispenser. Bring a friend and come enjoy the fun!
