

University Lutheran Church

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

July 9, 2017

Our Mission:

- To live among God's faithful people;
- To hear God's Word through the Spirit and share in the Lord's Supper;
- To proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed;
- To serve all people, following the example of our Lord Jesus;
- To strive for justice and peace in all the earth. ✦

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH during this season of Pentecost as we celebrate the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives and rejoice in the freedom that we have been given through the forgiveness of Jesus Christ. At the conclusion of our worship service, we will include a Celebration of Our Community. Following the last hymn, the congregation will be seated, and people who are celebrating a birthday or anniversary during this month of June, or any other award or milestone in their lives, will be invited to come forward for recognition and a supportive song of blessing.

TODAY WE WELCOM PASTOR ELIZABETH RAWLINGS to the pulpit. Pastor Rawlings in the minister at The Sanctuary, formerly known as Covenant House of Lutheran Campus Ministry.

WE WELCOME EVERYONE TO THE LORD'S TABLE to receive God's gift of forgiveness and the powerful freedom of a new life in Christ. Please come down the center aisle, proceed to the communion rail, and kneel or stand at the first open space. Hold out your hand to receive the bread. Gluten-free wafers are available. Please indicate your desire for a wafer at the time you are offered the bread. You may drink either from an individual glass, which will be served first, or from the chalice. The individual glasses in the center of the tray contain grape juice (golden color). The outside glasses contain red wine. An acolyte will pass by to pick up your individual glass. In the spirit of continuous communion, please return to your seat via the side aisles after you have drunk from the glass or chalice. After everyone has been served at the communion rail, the ministers will serve anyone in the pew that is unable to come forward. Please indicate your desire in this regard to the pastor. Parents who desire that their children not receive communion may bring them forward for a blessing.

PLEASE INDICATE YOUR ATTENDANCE at worship today and your participation at Holy Communion by completing the enclosed Worship Registration form and placing it in the offering plate. Please join us for fellowship and refreshments in the lounge after the service.

THERE ARE CHILDREN'S BAG with bulletins and books available in the lounge and the narthex. They are hanging on the wall.

CHILD CARE is available in the Nursery for children of any age. Ask the usher for directions.

CHANGING STATIONS are in both the Women's and Men's restrooms, across the hall from the nursery.

OUR PRAYERS are for our homebound, and for those in need of healing in body or spirit.

TEXTS FOR NEXT SUNDAY: Isaiah 55:10-13; Romans 8:1-11; Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23.

Welcome & Announcements

Service of Confession and Absolution

Confession

P: God's grace includes the promise and offer of forgiveness. Given the sinful state of our humanity, we would be foolish not to take advantage of this gift. Therefore, we confess our sins and welcome the peace and freedom that comes so completely from the God of our salvation.

(Silent Confession)

P: Gracious God,

All: We confess to you that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our entire being. We have not loved our neighbors as you so graciously have loved us. We have taken advantage of your grace by thinking that we have the license to sin and always can count on your forgiveness. We have tried to justify our own sinfulness by comparing our sins to others and claiming that we are not as bad as other people are. We try to earn your favor by doing the good deeds that you expect of us rather than trusting in your grace to be made righteous in your sight. Forgive us for our failure to trust in your grace and grant us the will to repent of our sins.

Absolution

P: By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, your sins are forgiven and you are forever free from whatever behavior you have brought to this moment in your life. Whatever you do from this moment on, you do so in response to this gracious gift of God and in gratitude for the freedom that we all have in Jesus, our Savior. Go now in God's peace.

Prayer of the Day

A: Let us pray together:

C: God of grace and peace, we delight in the opportunity this day to be reminded of how Jesus so graciously has made our relationship with you right by offering to us the forgiveness of all of our sins. We pray that as you have forgiven us, so may we be willing and able to forgive others in our lives. We know that refusing to do so simply nullifies your grace. Therefore, by the power of your Spirit, grant us the faith and courage to be an extension of your grace and help us to pursue the things that make for your peace in this world. We pray in the name of our Prince of Peace. Amen.

First Lesson

Zechariah 9:9-12

Rejoice greatly, O daughter Zion!
 Shout aloud, O daughter Jerusalem!
 Lo, your king comes to you;
 triumphant and victorious is he,
 humble and riding on a donkey,
 on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
 He will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war-horse from Jerusalem;
 and the battle bow shall be cut off,
 and he shall command peace to the nations;
 his dominion shall be from sea to sea,
 and from the River to the ends of the earth.
 As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you,
 I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.
 Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope;
 today I declare that I will restore to you double.

L: Holy Wisdom, Holy Word

C: Thanks be to God.

Second Lesson

Romans 7:15–25a

I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree that the law is good. But in fact it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do what is good, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God in my inmost self, but I see in my members another law at war with the law of my mind, making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members.

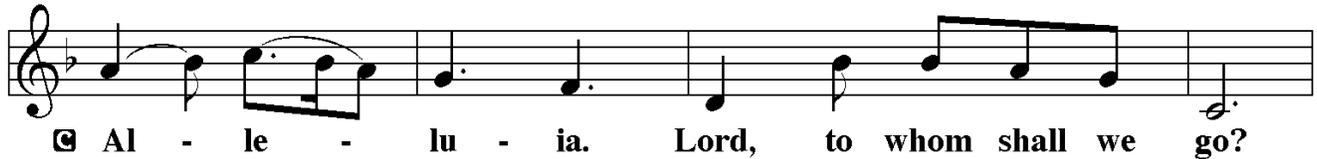

Wretched person that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!

L: Holy Wisdom, Holy Word.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel

Matthew 11:16–19, 25–30

[Jesus spoke to the crowd, saying:] "To what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to one another, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.'

For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon'; the Son of Humanity came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds."

At that time Jesus said, "I thank you, Abba God, Creator of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Abba, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by Abba God; and no one knows the Child except the Parent, and no one knows the Parent except the Child and anyone to whom the Child chooses to give that revelation.

"Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Affirmation of Faith

We believe in God the Giver of Life who created the heavens and the earth and all that exists, whose mercy is endless, and whose presence is eternal. We believe in God, who through Abraham and Sarah, promised to bless all peoples; who through Israel and Judah enacted the covenant of blessing and freedom; who through the prophets proclaimed God’s way of justice and peace; and who through Jesus revealed God’s grace and truth for all eternity.

We believe in Jesus who proclaimed the good news of God’s realm and expanded God’s promise of salvation to all people; who healed the sick, cast out demons, and raised people from the dead; who kept the Sabbath day holy, challenged the religious leaders to do the same, and suffered death on the cross on account of his faithfulness to God’s law of love; and who was raised by God from the dead and paved the way for a new age of forgiveness and freedom.

We believe in the Holy Spirit who is the promise of new life, the source of our faith, and the one who calls and gathers us together in one communion; who dwells within and among us to be the witness of God’s love in the world; who gives us the power to forgive others as we have been forgiven; and who makes our hearts yearn for God’s justice and peace. Amen.

Offertory Hymn

☐ Let the vine-yards be fruit-ful, Lord, and fill to the brim our cup of bless - ing. Gath - er a har - vest from the seeds that were sown, that we may be fed with the bread of life.
Gath-er the hopes and dreams of all; u - nite them with the prayers we of - fer now. Grace our ta - ble with your pres - ence,
Lord, and give us a fore-taste of the feast to come.

Offertory Prayer

A: Let us pray together:

C: Creator God, you have provided us with the sustenance of life. Given the inequitable distribution of these resources, we express our gratitude to you by offering to you these fruits of our labor for the ministries of this congregation, the witness of your love in our community, and the freedom of those who are in bondage to the oppression and violence of this world. Bless this bread and fruit of the vine that all who partake of this holy meal will know the freedom that comes with your gift of forgiveness and will act responsibly in faithfulness to your will. We pray in the holy name of Jesus. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

P: God be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts

C: We lift them to our God.

P: Let us give thanks to our gracious God.

C: It is right to give God our thanks and praise.

P: It is indeed right and salutary that we should at all times and in all places offer thanks . . .
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

The musical score is written on five staves in a single system. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics printed below the notes. The lyrics are: "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly One God of pow-er and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of our God. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est." The score ends with a double bar line.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly One God of pow-er and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of our God. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Eucharistic Prayer

P: Holy God, source of all grace and truth, endless is your mercy and eternal your reign.
Through baptism, you affirmed us as your beloved children and called us to a life of discipleship in the way of Jesus, our Christ.

In order to keep us faithful to this call and support us in our commitment to do your will,
Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying: Take and eat.
This is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Jesus also took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering Jesus' baptism, his witness to the love of God, his ministry of salvation, his crucifixion, and his resurrection, we celebrate this holy meal as evidence of his presence in our lives.

Through this holy meal, your Spirit is renewed within and among us to empower us to proclaim the good news of your realm and to speak out on behalf of those whose voices have been neglected and stifled by others in this world.

Join our prayers with those of all who have been baptized throughout the centuries and unite them with the ceaseless petitions of Jesus, our Christ, through whom all glory and honor belongs to you, both now and forever.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

THE SPECIAL OFFERING FOR JULY IS UNIVERSITY DISTRICT FOOD BANK.

Last year University District Food Bank (UDFB) moved from University Christian Church to their new location at 5017 Roosevelt Way NE (next to the U District Library). Their purpose built new home is co-located with 49 units of affordable housing operated by LIHI and YouthCare, a job skills training café operated by Street Bean, and an amazing rooftop garden. Last year, they had over 55,000 customer visits and distributed 2.3 million pounds of food. Approximately 16% of their customers are infants and children, 56% are adults, and 28% are senior citizens. Fifteen percent of their customers are homeless and UDFB tries to provide them with ready-to-eat foods when they visit the food bank. If you would like to contribute to UDFB, you may do so by using a special offering envelope in the pew, making your check out to ULC, earmarking it for UDFB, and putting your gift in the offering plate, or bringing it to the church office. Thank you for your generous offering.

THE ULC PICNIC will be Sunday, July 16 after worship at Warren Magnuson Park (Shelter #3). Burgers and hot dogs will be provided. Please bring a side dish to share. On the Worship Registration form is a list of volunteer needs and a few supplies needed. If you can help with any of these, please sign up. Food will be provided so you only need to bring your own camping gear, clothes, and beverages. If you have any questions, please contact John Grebe. If you are interested, please sign up on the Worship Registration form.

SEATTLE NIGHT OUT IS TUESDAY, AUGUST 2. ULC has been hosting a potluck on the front lawn on this night for the past few years. It is a chance to meet neighbors and share a meal with the women of EGH and the ULu Shelter. We need a couple of volunteers on Tuesday, July 25, to pass out flyers inviting our neighbors to join us. If you are willing to come to church that day for about an hour to help, please contact Mari in the church office. If you can come on August 2, please sign up on the Worship Registration form.

WELCOME!

Welcome to University Lutheran Church! We welcome you into the life and ministry of this congregation, and pray that as you worship with us and become familiar with our people and our many activities, you will discover a place to belong and a way to participate in this corporate ministry of Jesus Christ.

ULC is in a period of transition. In September, Pastor Tim Wolbrecht was installed as our interim pastor. Our Transition Team then met for six months and created our Mission Site Profile, a necessary step before forming a Call Committee. The Call Committee was installed during our service on April 9, and they are beginning their exciting process to bring a new pastor to ULC.

ULC is also in a period of celebration. We are enjoying special events as we give thanks for our first 100 years and look toward an exciting future.

ULC is a metropolitan congregation, committed to being a vital ministry in the University District and the world. We offer a variety of liturgies for worship in order to make a joyful noise unto God every Sunday.

As a Reconciling in Christ Congregation, we affirm the dignity and worth of people of all races, ethnic backgrounds, sexual orientations, gender identity, social status, age, physical capability and economic condition. As a Greening Congregation, we strive to be faithful stewards of God's creation. As an Advocating Congregation we make our voices known to our governing authorities on behalf of those who are crying out for justice and peace.

Please join us after worship in the lounge for fellowship, coffee & goodies!
