

University Lutheran Church

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

November 12, 2017

Our Mission:

- To live among God's faithful people;
- To hear God's Word through the Spirit and share in the Lord's Supper;
- To proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed;
- To serve all people, following the example of our Lord Jesus;
- To strive for justice and peace in all the earth. ✦

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH as we come together as a community of faith in the love and grace of God. At the conclusion of this service, we invite everyone to join in the Celebration of Our Community. If you have a birthday or anniversary this month, or would like to share a milestone or some other significant transition in your life, you are invited to come forward for a blessing by the congregation.

WE WELCOME EVERYONE TO THE LORD'S TABLE to receive God's gift of forgiveness and the powerful freedom of a new life in Christ. Please come down the center aisle, proceed to the communion rail, and kneel or stand at the first open space. Hold out your hand to receive the bread. Gluten-free wafers are available. Please indicate your desire at the time you are offered the bread. You may drink either from an individual glass, which will be served first, or from the chalice. The individual glasses in the center of the tray contain grape juice (golden color). The outside glasses contain red wine. An acolyte will pass by to pick up your individual glass. In the spirit of continuous communion, please return to your seat via the side aisles after you have drunk from the glass or chalice. After everyone has been served at the communion rail, the ministers will serve anyone in the pew that is unable to come forward. Please indicate your desire in this regard to the pastor. Parents who desire that their children not receive communion may bring them forward for a blessing.

PLEASE INDICATE YOUR ATTENDANCE at worship today and your participation in Holy Communion by completing the enclosed Worship Registration form and placing it in the offering plate. Please join us for fellowship and refreshments in the lounge after the service.

THERE ARE CHILDREN'S BAG with bulletins and books available in the lounge and the narthex. They are hanging on the wall. CHILD CARE is available in the Nursery for children of any age. Ask the usher for directions.

OUR PRAYERS are for those affected by the shooting in Sutherland Springs, Texas, our homebound, and for all those in need of healing in body or spirit.

TODAY IS PLEDGE SUNDAY when everyone in the congregation has the opportunity to make your pledge for 2018 in terms of how much you will give to ULC financially as well as how you will involve yourself in the leadership and ministries of this congregation. In filling out your Time & Talent form, remember to mark everything that you are willing to do in 2018, even if you already are involved in this ministry in 2017. As you come up for communion, bring your Pledge Form forward and place it in the basket by the baptismal font. If you forgot your Commitment Form, there are extra forms on the table in the lounge for you to fill out and turn in today. Otherwise, make sure to get your Commitment Form into the church office by next Sunday, November 19.

TEXTS FOR NEXT SUNDAY: Zephaniah 1:7, 12-18; 1 Thessalonians :1-11; Matthew 25:14-30.

Welcome & Announcements

Service of Confession & Absolution

Confession

P: God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food.” With this promise, God has provided humanity with what we need to be sustained in this life. However, the inequitable distribution of these earthly resources means that many people do not have the sustenance for life on this planet. For whatever part that we play in this iniquity, we now make confession and seek God’s complete forgiveness.

P: Creator God and Source of Life,

All: We confess to you that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our entire being. We have not loved our neighbors as you so graciously have loved us and have provided for our sustenance. While we contribute out of our abundance, we know that others live in poverty and can barely survive. While we dine at restaurants, others go hungry and line up at the local food bank for a bag of groceries. While we fill our closets with clothes for every season of the year, others have only one set of clothes to wear and no place or closet to call home. So that we are not stymied by our own guilt, create in us a clean heart, renew in us a right spirit, and set us free to love our neighbors more humbly and more boldly.

Absolution

P: God has heard our confession, and, as promised, forgives our sins and remembers them no more. As a result, we are set free to follow in the way of Jesus, expose the poverty of our day, and contribute to those who are in need of our abundant possessions.

C: Amen.

slain has be - gun his reign. Al - le - lu - ia.

This is the feast of vic- to- ry for our God.

Al- le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Prayer of the Day

A: Let us pray together:

C: God of extravagant grace, we give you thanks for the abundance of resources in our lives that nourish and sustain us. You, more than anyone else, know the motivations of our hearts and the intentions of our actions. Grant to us your Spirit so that we may be inspired and encouraged to remember the impoverished people in our society as we consider our financial pledge and our commitment to the ministries of this congregation. Keep us ever humble in our contributions and grateful in our good deeds. We pray in Jesus' beloved name. Amen.

First Lesson

Amos 5:18-24

Alas for you who desire the day of our God! Why do you want this day of God? It is darkness, not light; as if someone fled from a lion, and was met by a bear; or went into the house and rested a hand against the wall, and was bitten by a snake. Is not the day of God darkness, not light, and gloom with no brightness in it? I hate, I despise your festivals, and

I take no delight in your solemn assemblies. Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them; and the offerings of well-being of your fatted animals I will not look upon. Take away from me the noise of your songs; I will not listen to the melody of your harps. But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

L: Holy Wisdom. Holy Word.

C: Thanks be to God.

Second Lesson

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with Jesus those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of God, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

L: Holy Wisdom. Holy Word.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mark 12:38-44

As Jesus taught, he said, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation." He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

Hymn of the Day

“For the Fruit of All Creation”

Blue Hymnal #760

Affirmation of Faith

We believe in the God of love, who is the loving Creator of heaven and earth, and the source of all love among humankind.

We believe in Jesus Christ, the beloved child of God who was filled with God’s Spirit,

Who by the power of this Spirit loved others as God is love;

Who demonstrated his love for all by laying down his life for the salvation of the world;

Who was raised by God to dispel all fear of death;

Who breathed his Spirit on his disciples and gave them the power to love; and

Who will come again to reveal to all people the eternal love of God.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the inspiration and motivation for all people to love,

Who enables us to know the love of God and abide in God’s love;

Who empowers us to love one another with God’s love;

Who forgives our sins as we forgive one another; and

Who brings God’s love to completion by casting out all fear among us.

We have known and believe this love of God so that we may be the light of God’s love in the world. Amen.

Prayers of the People

A: Hear us, O God,

C: Your mercy is great!

Exchange of Peace

P: The peace of God be with you always.

C: And also with you.

Children's Message

Offering/Musical Offering

“Lord, Have Mercy”

J. S. Bach

Lord, have mercy; O Lord have mercy.
Wash me through and through from all my sin.
Lord, blot out all my guilt and shame.
Hear my prayer. My transgressions bear upon me.
O Lord hear my prayer.

Lord make pure my heart,
Inspire my thoughts to know your truth.
O cast me not away, O Lord.
Your Holy Spirit guard my soul.
Guard my heart and soul.
Make pure my heart.
O hear my prayer.

Lord, restore the joy of your salvation.
Renew my spirit, Lord.
Hear my prayer, O hear my prayer, O Lord.

Offertory Hymn

Let the vine - yards be fruit - ful, Lord, and fill to the brim our cup of bless - ing. Gath - er a har - vest from the seeds that were sown, that we may be fed with the bread of life.
Gath - er the hopes and the dreams of all; u - nite them with the prayers we of - fer now. Grace our ta - ble with your pres - ence, and give us a fore - taste of the feast to come.

Offertory Prayer

A: Let us pray together:

C: God of all good gifts, we give you thanks for the way that you have provided for us in this life. In response, we offer to you these fruits of our labor for the good of our neighbors, the wellness of our community, and the wholeness of all creation. Bless this bread and fruit of the vine so that all who receive this holy meal may be nourished and motivated to follow in the way of Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

P: May God be with you,

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to our gracious God.

C: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

P: It is indeed right and salutary . . . and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might:
Heav- en and earth are full of your glo- ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san - na.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho- san - na in the high - est.

Eucharistic Prayer

P: Creator God, you have created a world in which all might be satisfied by your abundant blessings. You dined with Sarah and Abraham, promising them life. You fed your people Israel with manna from heaven. You sent prophets to remind your people that they should be especially mindful of the widows and orphans in their community. In the fullness of time, you sent Jesus to proclaim good news to those who live in poverty, to dine with outcasts and sinners, to live simply and sustainably, to call those who are wealthy to a new way of life, and to cancel the debts of those who are enslaved by such bondage.

To model this way of justice and peace, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat. This is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

In the same manner, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people, for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering how Jesus sacrificed his life in order that we may live more fully in his grace, we rejoice in his resurrection and accept the new life that we all have received in the way that we have love for one another. As we live into this future, we await the day when all the peoples of the earth will come together with hearts yearning for justice and peace.

Send now your Spirit so that all who partake of this holy meal and are set free from our sins may be filled with the faith and courage to give of our lives and our resources for the common good of all people as we follow in the way of Jesus, through whom all glory and honor are yours, both now and forever.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

SUNDAY SCHEDULE

- 9:30 AM Service of Holy Communion
- 10:30 AM Fellowship time in the lounge
- 11:00 AM Adult Forum in the chapel
- 11:00 AM Sunday School upstairs

THE ADULT FORUM TODAY is Hospitality & Accompaniment for Immigrants. How is the church to respond to the current political posture towards the immigrant community? We are delighted to have as our guest, Briana Brannan, newly appointed immigrant and refugee organizer with the Church Council of Greater Seattle. Briana will speak to us about the role of faith communities in these troubling times and the reemergence of the sanctuary movement.

At the Adult Forum on November 19, guest speakers from Lutheran Community Services Northwest's Immigrant and Refugee Program will provide us an update on program activities in support of refugee resettlement in Puget Sound. This program was the recipient of funds collected during ULC's 100th Anniversary Legacy Project last spring. After the Adult Forum in the chapel, anyone interested in serving in a volunteer capacity with the program is invited to meet with LCSNW's reps in Room 200. Our LCSNW guests will be Jaimie Schilling, Director of Development, Beth Farmer, Director of Refugees Northwest (mental health and asylum services), and Sam Altis, Volunteer Coordinator for Resettlement in Tacoma. Beth will also present a temple talk before worship service.

THE U DISTRICT SANCUTARY ACTION TEAM meets the second Sunday of each month to provide support to our local immigrant and refugee community. Join us TODAY at 12:30 p.m. at University Congregational Church (4515 16th Ave. N.)

THE SPECIAL OFFERING FOR NOVEMBER is Community Lunch at Central Lutheran. Since 1984 ULC has been part of this meal program at Central Lutheran Church on Capitol Hill. What started as a simple lunch of soup and bread is now a full meal with a variety of food from local stores and restaurants. It has expanded to include a clothing bank, a lending library and visits from the Country Doctor. If you would like to contribute to Community Lunch, you may do so by using a special offering envelope in the pew, making your check out to ULC, earmarking it for "Community Lunch", and putting your gift in the offering plate, or bringing it to the church office. Thank you for your generous offering.

ON WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15 Members of ULC will prepare dinner for students at The Sanctuary (Lutheran Campus Ministry). We do this every third Wednesday of the month. If you are interested in helping, please sign up on the Worship Registration form or contact John Grebe 360-920-5746 or at snowshoe2day@hotmail.com.

PIE MAKING FOR EGH will happen following worship on November 19. Our children and youth will be participating in what is now an annual Thanksgiving tradition: making pies for the women of Elizabeth Gregory Home. We will be using the kitchen in the fellowship hall to cut dough, fill, and prepare individual pies so that our neighbors at EGH can have them for the holiday. If you plan on attending, please sign up on the Worship Registration form. Everyone is invited to help with this baking extravaganza!

A FESTIVAL OF HOPE is a Christmas Fair put on by Keystone United Church of Christ (5019 Keystone Place N). This year's event is on Saturday, November 18, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., and Sunday, November 19, 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. There are Fair Trade handcrafts, gifts and decorations, quilts (silent auction), homemade baked goods, a deli lunch and fresh baked pumpkin pies! Funds raise go to support hunger relief and self-help projects, both locally and globally.

THE FAITH ACTION NETWORK ANNUAL DINNER CELEBRATION & Fundraiser will be Sunday, November 19 at the Renton Pavilion Event Center (233 Burnett Ave S, Renton) at 5:30 p.m. To register go to www.fanwa.org/annual-dinner/. Tickets are $85 per person.

GOOD MUSIC FOR A GOOD CAUSE: RAIN CITY SYMPHONY is having their annual pre-Christmas Concert to benefit United Churches Emergency Fund on Wednesday, November 29, at University Christian Church. The program will feature music from William Walton, Percy Aldridge Grainger and Antonin Dvorak. Admission is free, but voluntary donations to UCEF are appreciated.

TIME TO DECORATE COOKIES! Please join the Rouse family on Saturday, December 2, at 10:00 a.m. for our annual cookie decorating party. All ages are welcome. We'll be decorating sugar cookies and making the traditional rice crispy treat wreaths, which we will share with the congregation at fellowship following the December 3, Sunday morning service. Hot spiced cider will be on hand, and we'll enjoy a light lunch together after the decorating. Please RSVP to Ruth Ann at hagglura@hotmail.com or 206-613-9797 or sign up on the Worship Registration form. Please also let Ruth Ann know if you would be available to help with fellowship on December 3, either before or after the service.

COLLA VOCE SEATTLE will be having their Christmas concert December 2 & 3. "Angels and Shepherds" bring together traditional arrangements and new contemporary settings of joyous choral music to help you ring in the holiday. Frank Gregory is a member of this chorus. The concerts at Saturday, December 2, at 7:30 p.m. & Sunday, December 3, at 3:00 p.m. Both performances are at St. Catherine of Siena Church (8th Ave NE & NE 85th). Admission is $20 and tickets are available from Frank Gregory.

TICKETS FOR THE PLU CHRISTMAS CONCERT are now on sale! The PLU choirs will be singing at Benaroya Hall on Monday, December 5 at 7:30 p.m. Group tickets for 10 or more are $25/per person; General Admission is $35. For more information, visit www.plu.edu/Christmas. (Alex Putnam, son of our Church Administrator, is singing in the University Chorale!)

"JOYOUS SOUNDS OF THE SEASON" is the theme for this year's Seattle SeaChordsmen holiday concert. Come celebrate the holiday season with music from this great barbershop chorus (Frank Gregory & Andy Kopser are members) on Saturday, December 9. The 2:00 p.m. concert will also feature the Ballard High School Men's Ensemble & Women's Chamber Choir and the "Seattle Shores" Sweet Adeline Chorus. The 7:00 p.m. concert will include two Sweet Adeline choruses, "Sound of Harmony" and "Song of Seattle". Tickets are available at www.brownpapertickets.com/event/3099516.

ATTENDANCE was 78 last Sunday. '

NEXT SUNDAY'S WORSHIP LEADERS ARE: Altar Guild – Daniel & Stacy Crowner; Acolytes – Aaron Maschhoff & Natalie Crowner; Asst. Minister – Sue Tong; Communion Assts. – Clint & Maggie Pehrson, Daniel & Stacy Crowner; Lectors – Sue Gregory & John Wott; Ushers – Aslaug Haraldsdottir, Lisa Johnson & Laura Koetke; Greeters – Shane Maskalick & Craig Perkins; Fellowship Hour: Sheryl Lundahl & Katie Saltanovitz; Counters – Rick Reuter & Linda Mohl; Courtesy Driver –Vic Ensz.

WELCOME!

Welcome to University Lutheran Church! We welcome you into the life and ministry of this congregation, and pray that as you worship with us and become familiar with our people and our many activities, you will discover a place to belong and a way to participate in this corporate ministry of Jesus Christ.

ULC is in a period of transition. In September 2016, Pastor Tim Wolbrecht was installed as our interim pastor. Our Transition Team then met for six months and created our Mission Site Profile, a necessary step before forming a Call Committee. The Call Committee was installed during our service on April 9, and they are in the process of bringing a new pastor to ULC.

ULC is also in a period of celebration. We are enjoying special events as we give thanks for our first 100 years and look toward an exciting future.

ULC is a metropolitan congregation, committed to being a vital ministry in the University District and the world. We offer a variety of liturgies for worship in order to make a joyful noise unto God every Sunday.

As a Reconciling in Christ Congregation, we affirm the dignity and worth of people of all races, ethnic backgrounds, sexual orientations, gender identity, social status, age, physical capability and economic condition. As a Greening Congregation, we strive to be faithful stewards of God's creation. As an Advocating Congregation we make our voices known to our governing authorities on behalf of those who are crying out for justice and peace.

Please join us after worship in the lounge for fellowship, coffee & goodies!
